MUDLARKS' DAY AT HAWTHORNE.

Hawthorne racing was again handicapped by bad track conditions, the course being soft and wet, although the soil through its fitness rendered the going safe. Overhead the day was pleasant, the air being warm and the sky hazy. The 26 scratched horses of the 79 engaged occasioned astonishment as owners "knew what they were against" when the entries were made, and when the track is muddy for several days in succession all horses whose names are seen on racing cards are supposedly as favorable to loose soil as a diet as the clay eaters of Georgia. The crowd was the largest of the week and the seventeen regular and two field bookmakers were as usual quite willing to accommodate all public wants.

Nat Roe opened a gap of three lengths on the others, in the first sixteenth of the first race, although the youngsters had got away bunched. Soon Nora C. shut up the daylight and ran the leader close at the turn for home where Old Fox, third, was dangerous, and Arthur McKnight also. At the last eighth Nat Roe began to give it up and Nora C. in brushing for the lead caromed against Arthur McKnight and careened across in front of Nat Roe, so forcing Old Fox, who was coming fast on the inside, over into the deep going to escape a collision. Old Fox was good enough, however, to win from Nora C. and Arthur McKnight was straightened up by Bloss in time to beat Nat Roe for the third place. Amid handclapping Judge Rees disqualified Nora C. Hundreds had seen the foul, but didn't know exactly how it occurred. The judge questioned J. Woods, who rode Nora C.

The long-expected accident to J. Reiff finally occurred, and until the boy was known to be uninjured the greatest excitement prevailed. It was in the second race when the horses were on the far turn that Stamina was seen to be riderless and the baby jockey could not be seen. The horses ran home, but nine persons out of ten saw them not, as their eyes were glued to the spot where the mix-up took place. Presently J. Reiff came to the paddock alive and well and the intense strain was relieved. W. R. Woodard excitedly said: "Keep at 'em! This baby ought not to be allowed to ride, and the turf officials should not allow him to get on a horse. Racing is for men, not for children." Many other prominent turfmen have all along expressed like opinions to the above. Stamina had led off, closely attended by Belle of Memphis, David being third and Lillie Mark fourth the first quarter. Here Elidad moved up and was close to Stamina when the accident happened, Belle of Memphis being in front of the Duke & Wishard colt. With Stamina out of it only three horses were left in the race, the others being already beaten. Belle of Memphis was not beaten until the final eighth, where David passed on, winning the race hands down from Elidad, who, bumping Belle of Memphis, made her stop. She finished, however, twenty lengths better than Shinfane. Elidad was disqualified, so that the last named horse—a bad actor that delayed the start—got no money.

The handicap resulted in a duel between Can't Dance and Plantain, they finishing many lengths better than Buckvidere, third, who was fifty yards better than Inuendo, fourth. Plantain led for three-eighths when Buckvidere showed in front for a short distance. Inuendo from last place here was close to the leaders, but at once fell away beaten and Can't Dance moved up. Plantain went to the lead again at the middle of the upper turn, where Can't Dance, in trying to come inside, was cut off by Buckvidere, but he was good enough to go to the outside and win, although he did not catch Plantain until the last hundred yards.

Prestar led in the fourth race until just before the turn into the homestretch where he stopped as if shot. Now Dr. Marks took command; he had worked his way up from fourth position around the first turn. Hosi, Cutter and Prince Blazes had always been near the leader and the latter struck the last three-sixteenth post with nothing to beat but Dr. Marks. Cass. Sloan took it easy on Prince Blazes and his horse, by far the best at the end, won as he pleased from Dr. Marks. The fight for third was a hot one, Hosi just managing to beat Cutter. Trebor, fifth, was well back, while the others were up the stretch.

O'Connell and "the tip," Hermoso, ran out in front, and under whip and spur led until well within the home stretch, where both stopped and Marcato, who had been fourth up the back stretch, looked all over a winner at the last sixteenth, when Cass Sloan came up from the fourth position with Glenmoyne and the old Glenelg gelding, flying through the mud at the finish, won the race easily from Marcato. O'Connell, staggering gamely under his load of 125 pounds, beat Hermoso for the third money. Brightie S., fifth, was away back. St. Simonian was practically left at the post. Greyhurst "broke," but that was about all there can be said for him.

Pearl Barnes, strongly played, as are all the horses of O. G. Parke, who on Thursday furnished in Yo No Se such a "warm thing," shot to the lead and ran so fast the first three-eighths that she not only was killed off, but also Silver Tone, the favorite, who tried to follow her. The last quarter there was nothing left in the race but Mr. Johnson and Canace, and in a battle clear in, the last jump was necessary to decide the winner. J. Hill being the stronger boy probably gave the race to Mr. Johnson. Genna, third, was not even close, but beat Our Nellie two lengths, she a like distance ahead of L. Pillott, Jr. Vie Lamont was off badly.

Johnny Reiff said: "I was fourth when I fell. Young went down on Lillie Mark, who was just ahead of Stamina, and my horse fell over her. Young had his collar bone broken but I was not hurt a little bit." Then the midget went riding on his bicycle, with his piping childish voice crying to a pal "Come on."

Jockey Newcom, who was riding Redskin, said: "I was right there with Lillie Mark and Stamina when they fell. My horse stumbled over them, but didn't go down. I hung on to his neck and regained my seat. Redskin put both feet on poor J. Young, who was on Lillie Mark, and I fear the boy is seriously injured."

A horseman said: "Truly J. Reiff escaped injury and rode Pinochle in the next race, but still it is only a question of time when so small a boy is injured for life or killed outright. There was J. Young, an eighty-pound boy on Lillie Mark, who caused the trouble. I tell you, it's all wrong, this system of lightweights and babies riding racehorses."

Mr. Wishard said: "It was through no fault of J. Reiff that the accident occurred. Lillie Mark was in front of Stamina, and with nothing to impede her crossed her legs or did something or other and fell, and Stamina, directly behind, fell over her."

Starter Bruen has been assiduously at work mornings schooling bad acting horses. As the result, witness the quiet behavior of Redskin at the post. The old fellow wore no blinkers, yet stood quietly as a lamb. Shinfane and Greyhurst were also allowed to start and did much better than formerly.

Judge Rees is waiting for a letter from Cincinnati containing valuable information on the Tusculum race.

LUCKY GREEN MORRIS.

"Abuse and Official are exactly the same kind of horses," laughed Pat Dunne. "The first is always favorite and never loses, whereas my nag is always favorite and never wins." The popular horseman was in splendid humor yesterday, and referring to the "red ear story," went on to tell about the luckiest horseman he ever knew.

"Green Morris is the man," said Pat, "and I'll tell you what happened him all in one day. Out at Hawthorne, when Joe Ullman ran his foreign book, there was a race down at Washington and engaged was Fred Foster's old horse Sullross. Everybody seemed to have a bet down and Green followed the crowd. He was standing in the poolroom when the odds were posted and putting on $200, grabbed the ticket and hurried to the betting ring to place a like amount on a horse of his just going to the post. He watched the race and saw his colors land third. 'There I go!' said he, to himself and hurried back into the poolroom. (You remember how busy it used to keep us all in those days!)

"The boardmarker was putting a ring around a horse's name, and it was not Sullross, the 'good thing' having ran second. 'Pshaw!' said old Green, 'I'm not much today,' and he journeyed toward the paddock to see what his men were doing with the horse that had just run."

"As he stepped on the lawn (we call it lawn, you know, when it's really a brick walk) a great shout arose and 'Green Morris wins!' went up. 'That's $1,400 in my pocket,' chuckled the old sport, 'but, by Jove, as they had to disqualify two for me to get it I guess I will let the boys cool out that lucky winner of mine and go and see how about Sullross. He ran second, so he has got double the chance my horse had to win, as in his case only one horse has to be disqualified.' And, would you believe it, there around Sullross' name was a ring! The winner had been disqualified. So then and there I put Green Morris in my book as the luckiest of horsemen."

"By the way, that Sullross race was the one where it was said the down town poolrooms took a lot of money after the first horse passed the post, and the gamblers knew that Sullross had been beaten. They say smart money went on even when the ring was around the wrong horse both 'inside' and 'outside,' knowing that Sullross was not first past the post. This has caused me to think that there is nothing in the way of a sure thing. At any rate, the boys that bet on Sullross 'cashed.'"

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

M. F. Dwyer's son, Charles, went to England with Tod Sloan. Commenting on this, the New York Sun says: "Young Dwyer will act in a sort of advisory capacity to Sloan, as Ed Gaines did during Sloan's previous foreign expedition. The fortunes of the Dwyer family are not what they formerly were, and young Dwyer hopes to win back the money that his father lost on the British courses. The family is not in any danger in a financial sense, however. When Mike Dwyer had plenty of money he put aside $400,000. To Charles Dwyer was allotted $100,000, another $100,000 went to Dwyer's daughter and the rest was given to Mrs. Dwyer. But the sum was placed in trust, and, therefore, the principal can not be touched as yet. Charles Dwyer will not get his patrimony until his twenty-fourth birthday has been reached, so that he has still some time to wait. Young Dwyer is not only an expert handicapper, but a shrewd judge of horseflesh as well. He is as nifty a bettor as his father. Sloan will take Dwyer's advice about accepting mounts. The outcome of the Sloan-Dwyer combination will be interesting, as it is certain that they will ea-counter many obstacles at first, notwithstanding Sloan's reputation."

The Jockey Club has reinstated George R. Patterson, owner of the horse Burlesque II and Jockey Coley Thompson, who rode Burlesque II in the race at Brighton Beach, for which the owner and jockey were ruled off. The horse, however, is barred from all tracks controlled by the Jockey Club. William Cheritan, owner, and James Sennett, trainer of Our Johnny, were also reinstated with the same proviso as to the horse being barred from the same tracks. Such trimming action is by no means creditable to the stewards of the Jockey Club. If the men were guilty of fraud, they should be kept in retirement from the turf. If they were innocent, the stewards are guilty of gross injustice in depriving them of the value and services of their horses.

The following owners won $1,000 or more at the recent Sheepshead Bay meeting: William Hendrie, $40,200; A. H. & D. H. Morris, $10,320; E. O. Pepper, $3,920; W. Lakeland, $5,960; Sydney Paget, $5,236; John Daly, $4,833; Mrs. B. McClelland, $4,180; W. B. Jennings, $3,065; J. W. Schorr & Son, $3,045; J. E. Madden, $2,800; F. V. Alexander, $2,750; Eastin & Larabee, $2,740; A. J. Joyner, $2,600; T. F. Barrett & Co., $1,850; M. Clancy, $1,652; James R. Keene, $1,480; Mr. Chamblet, $1,470; Green B. Morris, $1,400; P. J. Dwyer, $1,385; F. R. & T. Hitchcock, $1,370; L. S. & W. P. Thompson, $1,205; J. W. Colt, $1,170; C. Littlefield, Jr., $1,120; August Belmont, $1,112; Deimel & Farrell, $1,030.

The crack lightweight, Maher, has signed to ride for W. H. Clark in 1899 and 1900 for a reported salary of $10,000 per annum. The rise of this boy has been singularly rapid, but his prominence seems to be the deserved result of genuine and well sustained skill in the saddle. Of his employer, Mr. Clark, an exchange says: "This gentleman promises to be a great acquisition to the turf. In addition to owning a big string of horses, he has bought land somewhere in the neighborhood of Yonkers, on which a splendidly equipped racetrack will be built. And it is understood that several very influential men are interested with Mr. Clark."

His duties in connection with the big St. Louis fair prevented Secretary Joe Murphy from accepting a pressing invitation to fill the post of presiding judge at the Sacramento, Cal., meeting, which begins September 19. He will probably be able to go to the coast, however, in time to preside at the Los Angeles meeting and from there will go to San Francisco to act as judge at the winter meetings at the Oakland and Ingleside tracks.

Jockey Thorpe has contracted to ride another year for Burns & Waterhouse but he is credited with declaring that it will be his last season in the saddle and that at its conclusion he intends to go into business in either San Francisco, Chicago or Cincinnati. There is no better jockey riding in this country than Thorpe. He is honest and capable and his retirement would be a loss to the turf.

Mr. Sydney Paget, in behalf of W. C. Whitney, is reported to have offered $14,000 for Black Venus after her fine performance in winning the Great Eastern Handicap, an offer that was refused. The filly's defeat Thursday has probably reduced her value a few thousands.

Beginning Monday the first race at Harlem will be called at 2 o'clock sharp. Special race trains will leave the Grand Central Station at 12:30 and 1:15 p. m. A clerk will be at Hawthorne this morning to take entries for Monday's races.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Jockey Club has donated $650 toward a fund for the benefit of Jockey Barrett's mother. Horsemen in the east intend to contribute liberally to the fund, and it is believed that a handsome sum will be realized for the jockey's parents.

Quite a contingent of horses have left Newport to take part in the Lexington meeting which begins next Monday and more will follow. But horses in abundance will be left for all the purposes of the Newport meeting.

Big fields of scrubs have bothered the Newport officials so much that free entrance to the purses has been done away with in an attempt to keep entries within reasonable bounds, and $10 entrance fee is now charged.

Off at first break to a good start. The first three were in a terrific drive. Evaline was poorly ridden. The boy waited too long. With a better ride she would have won. Don Clarencio stopped after going a mile. He seems to be going back. The first two were doing their best in the last three furlongs. Britton outrode Dean. Mellie finished strong as she usually does in a long race. Ondague was doing his best. The company was too speedy for him. Mathews got all out of Trimuda that she had.

Winner—B. c. by Pardee—Re-Echo.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving hard; the next three were doing their best. Old Fox was the best and had to be to win. He was bumped off his stride. The filly was tired and out to the last ounce, and it was impossible for Woods to hold her straight. She has a lot of speed and some quality, but appears to be weak at the finish in all of her races. Arthur McKnight ran a game race. He was bumped and jostled and had all the bad luck. With clear sailing he would have been a keen contender. Nat Roe was slightly interfered with by Nora C at the head of the stretch. Frank Ireland broke in front, but could not raise a gallop the first part of it. Assessor went all to pieces at the end.

Scratched—Elizabeth R, 101; Etta P, 103; Cordial, 101; Barrier, 101.
Overweights—Defender II, 1½ pounds; Florence Fink, 2; Willie Howard, 1; Nat Roe, 2½.
Old Fox, place, even; show, 11 to 20. Arthur McKnight, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Nat Roe, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Wawekus—Treasure Trove.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next two were eased up at the end. David liked the going and had the speed of the party. His race was a great improvement over that of yesterday. He had weight off though and the distance was in his favor. This accounts for the improvement. Elidad ran a good race. He interfered with Belle of Memphis slightly in the stretch. The filly seemed all out at the time of the interference and the decision disqualifying Elidad was received with some surprise. Belle of Memphis had a lot of speed but evidently dislikes mud and tired badly after going about five eighths. Little or no damage resulted from the fall of Stamina and Lillie Mark although J. Young was badly shaken up.

Scratched—Prince Harry, 84.

Overweights—Shinfane, 1½ pounds; Elidad, 1½.

David, place, 1 to 2. Belle of Memphis, place, 2 to 5. Shinfane, show, 15 to 1.
